INTRODUCTION

Sto-Rox School District (the "Company") established the Sto-Rox School District 403(B) Plan (the "Plan") effective September 1, 2008.

Although the purpose of this document is to summarize the more significant provisions of the Plan, the Plan document will prevail in the event of any inconsistency.

ELIGIBILITY FOR PARTICIPATION

Eligible Employee - Elective Deferrals

You are an "Eligible Employee" if you are employed by Sto-Rox School District or any affiliate who has adopted the Plan.

Time of Participation - Elective Deferrals

You will become a Participant eligible to make Elective Deferrals after you begin employment.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE PLAN

Elective Deferrals

You may elect to reduce your Compensation (defined below) and make a contribution to the Plan on a pre-tax basis. These pre-tax contributions are known as Elective Deferrals. Federal law limits the amount you may elect to defer under this Plan and any other retirement plan permitting Elective Deferrals during any calendar year ($15,500 in 2008). However, if you are age 50 or over, you may defer an additional amount up to $5,000 (in 2008).

Effective January 1, 2002, if you have fifteen years of service (disregarding any period during which you are not an Employee of an eligible employer) you may be entitled to make a special Code section 403(b) catch-up contribution. Contact the employer for more information about this special catch-up contribution.

You may elect to start, increase, reduce or totally suspend your elections to contribute to the Plan effective as of the first day of any calendar month. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you may totally suspend your elections at any time.

The Plan Administrator may establish rules regarding the manner in which your elections are made. The rules may also require that certain advance notice be given of any election. Your election regarding Elective Deferrals is only effective for Compensation you will receive in the future. The Plan Administrator may also reduce or totally suspend your election if the Plan Administrator determines that your election may cause the Plan to fail to satisfy any of the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

Saver's Credit

If your adjusted gross income is below certain levels, you may be eligible for a nonrefundable income tax credit of up to $1,000 (the "Saver's Credit"). The Saver's Credit is equal to a specified percentage of your contributions to certain employer-sponsored plans and to certain IRAs. You are eligible for the credit only if you are age 18 or over, are not a full-time student, and are not claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return. The Saver's Credit is subject to other restrictions. Please consult your tax advisor for more information.

Rollovers

The Plan may accept a Rollover Contribution made on behalf of any Eligible Employee, regardless of whether such Employee has met the age and service requirements of the Plan. The Plan Administrator or the investment vehicle you have chosen may establish procedures that regulate the method by which Rollovers will be accepted. An Eligible Employee who has not yet met any of the eligibility requirements of the Plan will be deemed a Participant only with respect to amounts, if any, in his Rollover Contribution Account. Please contact your investment vendor and the Company for more information.

Military Service

If you serve in the United States armed forces and must miss work as a result of such service, you may be eligible to receive contributions, benefits and service credit with respect to any qualified military service.

Limits on Contributions

The amount that may be contributed to the Plan on your behalf in any year is limited to a fixed dollar amount ($46,000 in 2008). In addition, contributions cannot exceed 100% of your total compensation.

Compensation

"Compensation" means wages that are shown as taxable wages on your IRS Form W-2, plus amounts that would be cash compensation for services to the Employer includible in your gross income for the calendar year but for a compensation reduction election under Code sections 125, 132(f), 401(k), 403(b), or 457(b) (including an election made to reduce compensation in order to have Elective Deferrals under the Plan). For any self-employed individual, Compensation will mean earned income.

No more than $230,000 (in 2008) of Compensation may be taken into account in determining your benefits under the Plan.

VESTING

Participant Contributions

You will have a fully vested and nonforfeitable interest in your Elective Deferral Account.

DISTRIBUTIONS

Commencement of Distributions

Termination of Employment. You are entitled to receive a distribution from your Account after you terminate employment. The distribution will start at the time specified in the section titled "Timing and Form of Payment" below.

Age 59 - 1/2. If allowed by the terms of the investment vehicle you have chosen, you may be entitled to receive a distribution from your Account after you attain age 59 - 1/2. The distribution will start at the time specified in the section titled "Timing and Form of Payment" below.

Death. If you die, your Beneficiary will become entitled to receive your vested Account balance. The distribution will start at the time specified in the section titled "Timing and Form of Payment" below.

Timing and Form of Payment

Distribution for Reasons Other Than Death. If you become entitled to receive your benefit for any reason other than death, payment will begin in accordance with the terms of the investment vehicle you have chosen. In any event distributions must begin no later than April 1 of the calendar year following the later of: 1) the calendar year in which you attain age 70 - 1/2, or 2) the calendar year in which you retire. Please contact your investment vendor and the Company for more information.

Distribution on Account of Death. If you die before distribution of your Account begins, distribution of your entire Account must be completed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of your death unless an election is made by your Beneficiary to receive distributions in accordance with (1) and (2) below and these options are permitted by the investment vehicle you have chosen:

(1) Distributions may be made over the life or over a period certain not greater than the life expectancy of the Beneficiary commencing on or before December 31 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which you die;

(2) If the Beneficiary is your surviving spouse, the date distributions are required to begin in accordance with item (1) above will not be earlier than the later of (A) December 31 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which you die, or (B) December 31 of the calendar year in which you would have attained age 70-1/2.

If you die after distribution of your Account has begun, the remaining portion of your Account will continue to be distributed under the method of distribution being used prior to your death. If your Account was not being distributed in the form of an annuity at the time of your death, your Beneficiary may elect to receive your remaining vested Account balance in a lump sum distribution.

Cash Out

If the vested amount of your Account does not exceed $1,000, your vested Account will be paid in a lump sum.

INSERVICE DISTRIBUTIONS AND LOANS

Hardship Withdrawals

General Rule. You may receive a distribution on account of hardship from all of your Accounts, except earnings on your Elective Deferral Account credited after the later of December 31, 1988, and the end of the last Plan Year ending before July 1, 1989.

Immediate and Heavy Financial Need. You may receive a hardship distribution only if the Plan Administrator finds that you have an immediate and heavy financial need where you lack other available resources. The following are the only financial needs considered immediate and heavy:

- (1) Expenses incurred or necessary for medical care, described in Code section 213(d), for you or your spouse, children, or dependents;
- (2) The purchase (excluding mortgage payments) of your principal residence;
- (3) Payment of tuition and related educational fees for the next 12 months of post-secondary education for you or your spouse, Beneficiary, children or dependents;
- (4) The need to prevent the eviction of you from your principal residence (or a foreclosure on the mortgage on your principal residence);
- (5) Payments for burial or funeral expenses for your deceased parent, spouse, Beneficiary, children or dependents; or
- (6) Expenses for the repair of damage to your principal residence that would qualify for the casualty deduction.

Amount Necessary to Satisfy Need. A distribution will be considered as necessary to satisfy your immediate and heavy financial need only if:

(1) You have obtained all distributions, other than hardship distributions, and all nontaxable loans under all plans maintained by the Company;

(2) Your Elective Deferrals (and Voluntary Contributions, if any) will be suspended for six months after the receipt of the hardship distribution; and

(3) The distribution is not in excess of the amount of an immediate and heavy financial need (including amounts necessary to pay any federal, state or local income taxes or penalties reasonably anticipated to result from the distribution).

Reservist Distributions

If you were a military reservist called to active duty for a period in excess of 179 days or for an indefinite period, you may receive a distribution from the plan while still employed from amounts attributable to elective deferrals and catch-up contributions. You must make the distribution during the period beginning on the date of your call-up and ending at the close of the active duty period. In addition, you must have been called to active duty after September 11, 2001, and before December 31, 2007.

Rules Regarding Inservice Distributions

The Plan Administrator or the investment vehicle you have chosen may establish uniform procedures that include, but are not limited to, prescribing limitations on the frequency and minimum amount of withdrawals. All distributions will be made in the form of a single sum as soon as practicable following the Valuation Date as of which such withdrawal is made. Such distributions will be paid in cash. Only Employees are eligible to receive inservice distributions.

Loans

If you are an active Employee you may apply for a loan from the Plan. Loans will only be made to persons who the Plan Administrator determines have the ability to repay the loan. You may not receive a loan if the sum of your new loan and the outstanding balance of all of your other loans would exceed the lesser of:

(1) $50,000, reduced by the greater of the outstanding balance on any loan from the Plan to you on the date the loan is made or the highest outstanding balance on loans from the Plan to you during the one-year period ending on the day before the date the loan is approved by the Administrator (not taking into account any payments made during such one-year period); or

(2) one half of the value of your Account Balance (as of the valuation date immediately preceding the date on which such loan is approved by the Administrator).

The minimum loan amount is $1,000 and the maximum number of loans outstanding at any one time is 1.

Loan fees may be charged against the Account of the Participant to whom the loan is granted and the Plan Administrator may adopt any administrative rules or procedures that it deems necessary or appropriate with respect to the granting and administering of loans.

MISCELLANEOUS

Domestic Relations Orders

Your benefits under the Plan may be assigned to other people in accordance with a qualified domestic relations order. You may obtain, without charge, a copy of the Plan's procedures regarding qualified domestic relations orders from the Plan Administrator or the investment vehicle you have chosen. Please contact your investment vendor and the Company for more information.

Loss of Benefit

Except as provided below, your account is not subject to any form of attachment, garnishment, sequestration or other actions of collection afforded creditors and your benefits are free from attachment, garnishment, account's process, or any other legal or equitable process. You may not alienate, anticipate, commute, pledge, encumber or assign any of the benefits or payments which you may expect to receive, contingently or otherwise, under the Plan, except that you may designate a Beneficiary.

However, you may lose all or part of your balance:

Under the terms of a qualified domestic relations order.

To comply with any federal tax levy.

To comply with the provisions and conditions of a judgment, order, decree or settlement agreement between you and the Secretary of Labor or the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation relating to your violation (or alleged violation) of part 4 of subtitle B of title I of ERISA.

Amendment and Termination

The Company may amend, terminate or merge the Plan at any time. However, no such action may permit any part of Plan assets to be used for any purpose other than the exclusive benefit of participants and beneficiaries or cause any reduction in the amount credited to your account.

Fees

Your account may be charged for some or all of the costs and expenses of operating the Plan. Such expenses include, but are not limited to, investment expenses and costs to process loans, plan distributions and domestic relations orders.

Insurance

Your account is not insured by the PBGC because the Plan is not a defined benefit pension plan.
